

Did you know?

- Kentucky is a “closed” Primary state. That means in a Primary Election, registered voters can only vote for their respective party.
- In the General Election, registered voters are allowed to vote for any candidate(s) on the ballot.
- In Boone County we have almost 94,000 registered voters, making us the 4th largest voting county in Kentucky.
- We have 62 precincts in Boone County.
- Each precinct has 4 poll workers. This means we need a minimal of 265 poll workers, which includes alternates for each Election.
